

Harry Weiss Collection

1992.112

Photograph Inventory

1. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone; image of numerous corpses lying on the ground; printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 Apr 45 These are the victims of the mass murder at the Ohrdruf concentration camp the Nazis shot during their hasty retreat."
2. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of people standing over a naked corpse. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 Apr 45 Preparing the bodies for burial at the Ohrdruf concentration camp by civilians of Ohrdruf, Germany. They are wrapped in sheets and are grave marked with a number."
3. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of leg protruding from ground. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Hitchcock 10 April 1945 Leg of a body that is still protruding from the grave that was not fully covered by the hasty retreat of the Nazis. At Ohrdruf concentration camp in Germany."
4. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of corpses lying on the ground. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 April 1945 Bodies at Ohrdruf concentration camp still lying in the same manner in which they fell after being shot by the hasty retreat of the Nazis."
5. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of burned corpses lying on the ground. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Hitchcock 10 April 45 Partially burned bodies left by the hasty retreating Nazis. They were stacked one layer of bodies and one layer of wood for about six or seven feet in height. At Camp Ohrdruf, Germany."
6. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of dead corps lying on ground. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 Apr 45 "Body of a victim has been lying in this position for about a week before the Americans overran the camp of Ohrdruf. One of the many who were brutally shot by the Nazis."
7. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses stacked one on top of each other. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 April 1945 Bodies of the victims stacked like cord wood waiting to be cremated or to be buried in grave of hundreds. The white substance is lime, for the sake of smell at Ohrdruf, Germany."
8. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of corpses semi or completely wrapped in body bags. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 Apr 45 Bodies prepared for burial by the civilians of Ohrdruf, Germany. Some have probably been dead for several weeks. Ohrdruf concentration camp, Germany."
9. April 10, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses, stacked one on top of each other. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 10 Apr 45 Bodies of victims stacked up like cord wood waiting to be either burned in the furnace or buried in a mass grave of hundreds. The white substance is lime, sprinkled over the bodies to keep down the odor. At Ohrdruf concentration camp, Germany."

10. April 14, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of a man being held up by two other men at Buchenwald concentration camp, Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 14 Apr 45 This man being helped along by his friends is so weak from the lack of food that he can hardly walk. One of the many hundreds in the same condition at the camp in Weimar, Germany."

11. April 14, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of men in bunks, one single figure stands at the foot of bunks, wrapped in a blanket, Buchenwald concentration camp. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 14 Apr 45 Men and young boys showing the way and manner in which they slept every night for the past three years at the camp near Weimar, Germany."

12. April 14, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses, twisted and stacked in to a corner. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det NR2 Moll 14 Apr 45 Bodies of the victims stacked in the building awaiting (sic) to be cremated in the large furnaces, specially built for such work. At the concentration camp at Weimar."

13. April 23, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of a pile of corpses in an open, gravel valley. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 16, Ornitz 23 Apr 45 Bodies of old men and young kids in the mass grave at the concentration camp near Buchenwald, Germany."

14. April 23, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of a decorative work on light-colored material. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 16 Ornitz 23 April 45 This tattoo was part of a mans (sic) body until it was skinned off by Nazis SS men and used as a decoration on the wall of their quarters, at Buchenwald concentration camp."

15. April, 23, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses, stacked one on top of each other, outside a building. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 16, ornitz 23 April 45 Bodies of the men and kids stacked outside the building in which they will be cremated in large furnaces. At Buchenwald concentration camp."

16. April 23, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of Numerous men and boys, looking out of their bunks. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 16 Ornitz 23 Apr 45 This photo shows the conditions and the amount of sleeping space for the prisoners at Buchenwald concentration camp. They range from young kids to old men, all doing the same amount of work each day."

17. April 24, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses laid out on the ground. Printed, recto, "166th Signal photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 24 Apr 45 Bodies of Allied prisoners, Russian, American, French, Polish and Numerous other nationalities await burial by the civilians at the Schwartenxenfield, Germany, concentration camp."

18. April 24, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses laid out in foreground, people digging pits in middle ground and homes can be seen in background. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 24 Apr 45 Civilians digging graves for the bodies of Allied prisoners of all nationalities at the prison camp of Swarten enfield, Germany."

19. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of people carrying bodies in opened caskets. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Belfer 29 April 45 Civilians of Nurnburg (sic) both men and women participate in the carrying of the bodies of the slave laborers a mile and a half outside of the city of Nurnburg (sic) for burial."

20. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of line of people carrying open, white boxes (coffins). Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Belfer 29 April 45 Civilians of Nurnburg (sic), Germany carry the bodies of the slave laborers a mile and a half outside the city for burial."

21. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of line of people carrying open, white boxes (coffins) through a town. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10 Belfer 29 April 45 Civilians of the City of Nurnburg (sic) at the task of carrying the bodies of the slave laborers over the mile and a half stretch to the burial grounds."

22. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses in a wooded area in the foreground, while people are busy, in the background, with the task of placing the corpses in open coffins. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Belfer 29 April 1945 Putting the bodies of the slave laborers in coffin made by the civilians in preparation for the mile and a half trek (sic) to the burial grounds outside Nurnburg (sic), Germany."

23. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses laid out in a wooded area. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Belfer 29 April 45 Bodies of slave laborers lying in the woods outside Nurnburg (sic), Germany where they were murdered by SS troops. From here they will be carried a mile and a half to the burial grounds by the civilians of that town."

24. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of numerous corpses in coffins, lining the ground and surrounded by hundreds of people. Printed, recto, "166th Signal photo Co, Det 10, Belfer 29 Apr 45 At the burial grounds outside Nurnburg (sic), Germany, a prayer was offered in English, Polish and German for the slave laborers who had been murdered by the Nazis."

25. April 29, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Closely photographed image of man whose face has been severely disfigured. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10 Belfer 29 April 45 This man had his head crushed by a large hammer that was found in the vicinity. The civilians at Nurnburg (sic) were forced to bury the dead slave laborers."

26. May 5, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Closely photographed image of partially buried corpses. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 5 May 45 Position in which the men were thrown in the grave as it was uncovered by the civilians at Wetterfield, Germany. There were 59 men in the grave."

27. May 5, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of group of corpses laid out in a wooded area. A few men stand to the side of this group. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 5 May 45 Bodies of the men who were taken from the mass grave at Wetterfield, Germany lying along side of the grave. There were 59 bodies in the grave, civilians are digging them out."

28. May 6, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of lines of corpses laid out in an open field. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 6 May 45 Jewish women died from brutality and malnutrition lying in the field awaiting to be buried by the civilians at the Hergenhein concentration camp, Germany."

29. May 6, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of lines of corpses laid out in an open air field. Two men stand over the corpses in the background. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 6 May 45 Jewish women died from brutality and malnutrition lying in the field awaiting to be buried by civilians at the Hergenhein concentration camp, Germany."

30. May 6, 1945; Signal Corps press reproduction photograph, halftone. Image of corpses lying in grassy area. Printed, recto, "166th Signal Photo Co, Det 10, Dougall 6 May 45 Jewish women died from Brutality and malnutrition lying in the field awaiting to be buried by civilians at the Hergenhein concentration camp, Germany."

31. April 30, 1945; image of hundreds of men, dressed in concentration camp uniforms, gathered together, over their heads flies the American flag; printed verso, in ink: "ETO HQ 45 35622 30 April Credit....U S Army Signal Corps photog/....T/4 Arland B. Musser..163 As the American troops arrived, a homemade American flag was raised by the prisoners of Dachau Prison camp. As it waved in the breeze, it seemed to reflect the joy of inmates who realize freedom for the first time in many years. 7A XV Corps 1st., BN., 157th Inf., Regt., 45th., Dachau, Germany."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

32. April 30, 1945; image of hundreds of men, dressed in concentration camp uniforms, gathered together, over their heads flies the American flag; printed verso, in ink: "ETO HQ 45 35622 30 April Credit....U S Army Signal Corps photog/....T/4 Arland B. Musser..163 As the American troops arrived, a homemade American flag was raised by the prisoners of Dachau Prison camp. As it waved in the breeze, it seemed to reflect the joy of inmates who realize freedom for the first time in many years. 7A XV Corps 1st., BN., 157th Inf., Regt., 45th., Dachau, Germany."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

33. April 30, 1945; image of hundreds of men, visibly cheering and happy, dressed in concentration camp uniforms, dividing the group is two huge border posts, lined with barbed wire; printed verso, in ink: "ETO HQ 45 35619 30 April Credit....U S Army Signal Corps Photog...T/4 Arland B. Musser...163 In prison stockade at Dachau, prisoners cheer the liberating Americans, who freed them from the inhuman treatment of the S.S. guards. 7A XV Corps 1st BN 157th Inf., Regt., 45th Div., Dachau, Germany."; stamped on verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

34. April 30, 1945; image of a soldier and a former prisoner, standing in front of crematorium ovens; printed verso, in ink: "ETO HQ 45 35584 30 April Credit....U S Army Signal Army Corps Photog...T/4 Sidney Blau 163 Dachau atrocity camp: A former prisoner freed when 7th U.S. Army troops liberated the infamous camp, shows the crematory furnaces to Col Walter P. O'Brien whose men captured the camp. (not legible)...7th U.S. Army, XV corps, Dachau, Ger."; stamped on verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

35. April 30, 1945; image of two soldiers, bearing red cross armbands and helmets, looking at ceiling in brick wall, floor and ceiling room; printed verso, in ink: "ETO HQ 45 35593 30 Apr Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...T/4 Sidney Blau. 163 Yanks examine fake shower head in the gas chamber at the Dachau concentration camp, located in the crematory. Unknowing prisoners were brought into the shower room marked `Showers.' Here they stripped and after door was closed, they were gassed. 7A XV Corps Dachau Germany."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

36. April 30, 1945; image of soldier partially blocking door with the inscription "Gaszeit: Zu 7:30 Uhr Auf 10:... (not legible)...Vorsicht! Gas! Lebensgefahr Nicht oeffnen!" (Danger! Gas! Mortal Danger! Do not open!); printed verso, in ink: "ETO HQ 45 35592 30 April Credit... U S Army Signa (sic) Corps Photog...T/4 Sidney Blau...163 Dachau atrocity camp..Gas chambers conveniently located to the crematory are examined by a 7th U.S. Army soldier. These are part of the horror chambers used by the Nazis before the 7th Army liberated the camp. 7th U.S. Army XV Corps Dachau, Ger."; partial "confidential" stamp on verso; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

37. image of four soldiers, the Red Cross symbol visible on three of the soldiers' arms, looking at a row of corpses. Printed, in ink, verso, "ETO 45 35518 28 April Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...2nd LT Edward C. Newell 163 Landsberg Atrocity: The emaciated bodies of victims of German cruelty at Landsberg Prison. Before retreating in the face of Seventh Army attack, the Jewish prisoners were locked in their huts and told they would be shot if they came out. Then the buildings were set on fire. Some burned to death in their huts, others found strength to break down the doors and crawl out to die in the streets. Most prisoners were naked. Some had remnants of clothing on their charred bodies. Here medics examine corpses in front of the ruins of a charred hut. 7th Army, CCA, 12th Arm'd Div, XXI Corps, Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

38. image of remains of burned corpses. Printed, verso, in ink, "ETO HQ 45 35520 28 April Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...2nd LT Edw C. Newell 163 Landsberg Atrocity...(refer to .37 for full text)...Most prisoners were naked, some had remnants of clothing on their charred bodies. Long lines of charred huts with the remains of the victims lying in the ashes. 7th Army, CCA, 12th Armed Div. XXI Corps, Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

39. image of remains of burned corpses. Printed, verso, in ink, "ETO HQ45 35698 29 Apr Credit.....U S Army Signal Corps Photog...T/5 Smith...163 ANSM SPX-27 Pile of bodies which will be carried by German civilians from the town of Landsberg, Germany, and buried in graves also dug by German civilians in Stalig #4 concentration camp at Landsberg. These are the bodies of political prisoners, starved and burned to death by S.S. troops at the prison. 7th Army V1 Corps Landsberg, Ger." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

40. image of remains of burned corpses. Printed, verso, in ink, "ETO HQ 45 35515 28 April Credit...US Army Signal Corps Photog...2nd LT Edward C. Newell 163 The Landsberg Atrocity: The Charred corpses of Jewish prisoners found lying in the ashes of their prison hut set afire by retreating Nazi prison guards at Landsberg. These prisoners were apparently burned alive when they were locked in their wooden huts and told to stay there or be shot by the guards. Burned fragments (sic) of clothing cling to some of the emaciated bodies while others were naked. 7th Army, CCA, 12th Arm'd div, XXI Corps Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

41. image of soldier standing over the remains of burned corpses. Printed, verso, "ETO HQ 45 35514 28 April Credit...US Army Signal Corps Photog...2nd LT Edward C Newell 163 The Landsberg Atrocity: A signal corps cameraman records the horror of Landsberg prison. In the smoking remnants of their burned prison hut lie charred and emaciated bodies of Jewish prisoners burned alive by Nazi prison guards who locked them in their wooden huts and set them afire before retreating before Seventh Army. &th Army, CCA, 12th Arm'd Div, XXI corps, Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

42. image of remains of burned corpses lying outside of burned building. Printed, verso, "ETO HQ 45 35516 28 April Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...2nd LT Edw C. Newell 163 Landsberg Atrocity: Emaciated and burned bodies of Jewish prisoners lie in the rain outside their smouldering (sic) hut in Landsberg concentration camp. These prisoners, apparently burned alive by Nazi prison guards before they fled, had strength enough to crawl out before they succumbing to the flames. Burned fragments of clothing cling to their corpses. (M) 7th U.S. Army, CCA, 12th Arm'd div, XXI Corps, Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

43. April 30, 1945; image of pile of twisted corpses stacked against a corner, within a building; printed in ink, on verso: "ETO HQ 45 35502 30 April Credit...US Army Signal Corps Photog...T/4 Sidney Blau 163 Dachau Atrocity Camp: Stark evidence of Nazi brutality. Piled high against the blood-stained walls of a crematory room in the infamous concentration camp at Dachau, these hundreds of dead prisoner awaited cremation when Seventh Army troops took the camp. SUSA, XV Corps, Dachau, Germany."; stamped on verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

44. April 30, 1945; image of pile of twisted corpses stacked against a corner, within a building; printed in ink, on verso: "ETO HQ 45 35502 30 April Credit...US Army Signal Corps Photog...T/4 Sidney Blau 163 Dachau Atrocity Camp: Stark evidence of Nazi brutality. Piled high against the blood-stained walls of a crematory room in the infamous concentration camp at Dachau, these hundreds of dead prisoner awaited cremation when Seventh Army troops took the camp. SUSA, XV Corps, Dachau, Germany."; stamped on verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

45. April 1945; image of pile of corpses stacked one on top of each other, against a corner, within a building; printed verso: "ETO HQ 45 35579 Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...Sgt Blau 163 Dachau Atrocity Camp: Stacked like cordwood, naked bodies of inmates of the infamous Dachau concentration camp were awaiting cremation when 7th U.S. Army troops liberated the camp. A pool of blood gathers on the floor. (10) 7th U.S. Army, XV Corps, Dachau, Ger." stamped on verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

46. April 30, 1945; image of debris; printed in ink, verso: "ETO HQ 45 35591 30 Apr Credit... U S Army Signal Corps Photog...T/4 Blau...163 Bone pile outside crematory at the Dachau concentration camp. In the past 2 or 3 months, the inmates claim that almost 15,000 people have been cremated. 7A XV Corps Dachau Germany."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

47. image of two men moving a corps, overlooked by a soldier. printed, verso, in ink, "ETO HQ 45 35697 29 April Credit.....U S Army Signalcorps (sic) Photog...T/5 Smith...163 ANSM SPX-27 German Civilians from the town of Landsberg, are carrying deadpolitical (sic) prisoners killed and starved by S.S. Troops, to graves also dug by German civilians at the Stalig #4 concentration camp. 7th Army V1 Corps Landsberg Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

48. image of two civilian men carrying the charred remains of a corpse, followed by a soldier. Printed, in ink, verso, "ETO HQ 45 35693 29 April Credit.....U S Army Signal Corps Photog...T/5 Smith...163 ANSM APX-27 German civilians from Landsberg, Ger.,are carrying the dead bodies of Russians, Poles, French, and Jewish prisoners, starved and burned to death by S.S. troops at the Stalag #4 concentration camp. 7th Army V1 Corps Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

49. image of numerous civilians lifting and placing corpses in to body bags, overlooked by a soldier. Printed, in ink, verso, "ETO HQ 45 35694 29 April Credit.....U S ArmySignal Corps Photog...T/5 Smith...163 ANSM-SPX-27 German civilians from Landsberg, Ger.,are carrying the dead bodies of Russians, Poles, French, and Jewish prisoners, starved and burned to death by S.S. troops at the Stalag #4 concentration camp. 7th Army V1 Corps Landsberg, Ger." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

50. image of soldiers and civilian men looking in to an open air box car, the floor covered with corpses; printed in ink, verso: "ETO HQ45 35587 30 Apr Credit....U S Army Signal Corps Photog.....T/4 Sidney Blau..163 7th U.S. Army troops force these German youths believed to be members of the Hitler Youth Movement, to examine the box cars filled with bodies of atrocity victims. Several freight cars containing bodies of German political prisoners were found in Dachau concentration camp in Germany, many boys like these took up arms against our troops as snipers. 7th U.S. Army XV Corps Dachau, Ger."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

51. image of open air box car, the floor covered with corpses; printed in ink, vers:, "ETO HQ 45 35580 30 April Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...Sgt Blau 163 Dachau Atrocity camp: Scattered about the box car in the yards of the Dachau concentration camp, are bodies of prisoners who died enroute from another concentration camp. 7th US. Army troops who liberated Dachau, found 50 box cars each loaded with bodies. (10) SUSA, XV Corps, Dachau, Germany."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

52. image of corpses; printed in ink, verso: "ETO HQ 45 35578 30 April Credit... U S Army Signal Corps Photog...Sgt Blau 163 Dachau Atrocity camp: Starved bodies of prisoners, held by the Germans, who were transported to Dachau from another concentration camp, lie grotesquely as they died enroute, this is the contents of one of 50 similar freight cars, clenched fists of several are evidence of the agony in which they died. (10) 7th U.S. Army, XV Corps, Dachau, Ger."; stamped verso in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

53. image of emaciated, unclothed corpses. Printed, in ink, verso, "ETO HQ 45 35513 28 April Credit...U S Army Signal Corps Photog...2nd LT Edw C. Newell 163 The Landsberg Atrocity: The emaciated bodies of Jewish prisoners bear evidence of the slow death by starvation they were undergoing before having been locked in their wooden huts by retreating Nazi prison guards who set the huts afire and left. These inmates managed to muster enough strength to break out of their huts, but not before they succumbed to the smoke and flames. 7th Army, CCA, 12th Arm'd Div, XXI Corps, Landsberg, Germany." The following photographs are stamped on reverse in pink ink: "CERTIFYING AS BEING PASSED BY OFFICE CHIEF PRESS CENSOR HEADQUARTERS ETOUSA ARMY PICTORIAL SERVICE, BY (initialed)".

54. image of man with back to viewer, rifle over right shoulder, walks in rain towards group in distance beyond gate and seemingly abandoned camp. Printed in ink, verso, "ETO HQ45 28 April Credit.....U S Army Signal Corps Photog.....2nd LT edw C. Newell 183 Landsberg Atrocity: 7th U.S. Army Troops enter the smoking ruins of the Landsberg Concentration camp. Before American Forces captured the camp German guards locked their prisoners in the wooden huts and set fire to them. Some burned to death in the buildings. Others found strength to crawl out to die in the streets. Most prisoners were naked, but some had remnants of clothing on their charred bodies. (M) 7th U S Army, CCA, 12th Arm'D Div. XXI Corps, Landsberg, Germany."