

2006.396 preliminary inventory

Ehrenreich family papers, 2006.396

Collection consisting of family photographs, correspondence, official documentation, programs, and articles related to Dr. Nathan and Mrs. Frieda Rosenstein Ehrenreich and their son, Helmut (Henry) Ehrenreich, originally of Frankfurt am Main, Germany. Nathan was a composer and the musical director of a prestigious Jewish choir in Frankfurt before the family's 1939 emigration to the United States. After arriving in the United States, Dr. Ehrenreich continued his career in music in Buffalo, NY. The collection includes documents related to the education of each of the family members, pre-war and post-war musical programs, original compositions, correspondence and speeches regarding Jewish music, and the family's correspondence and identity paperwork for their emigration.

Box 1:

Photographs

Family books

Papers related to the education of Nathan Ehrenreich

CD containing doctoral dissertation of Nathan Ehrenreich

Papers related to Nathan Ehrenreich's pre-war musical career

Newspaper clippings and programs for pre-war concerts directed by Nathan Ehrenreich

Papers regarding the education of Frieda Rosenstein Ehrenreich

Papers regarding the education of Helmut (Henry) Ehrenreich

Identity papers for Nathan, Frieda Rosenstein, and Helmut (Henry)
Ehrenreich

Documents related to the 1939 emigration

Documents and correspondence, 1940-1941

1945 letters from family members (Max and Gerald Rosenstein) who survived the war in Germany

Programs and clippings regarding Nathan Ehrenreich's work in Buffalo (1)

Programs and clippings regarding Nathan Ehrenreich's work in Buffalo (2)

Box 2:

Text and notes for speeches on Jewish music and composers

Handwritten musical compositions by Nathan Ehrenreich

CVs for Nathan Ehrenreich as needed for restitution

Restitution paperwork

Family death notices

Letters of condolence and clippings on the death of Nathan Ehrenreich

Post-war correspondence

Pocketbook with contents: identity paperwork, 1960s-1970s

Documents, articles, and photographs related to the "Jüdische Musiker in Frankfurt, 1933-1942" exhibit in Frankfurt, 1990