Biographical note

Dr. Peter Black served as Staff Historian and later Chief Historian in the 1980s and 1990s for the Office of Special Investigations (OSI) in the Criminal Division of the United States Department of Justice, where he helped investigate and litigate alleged participants in Nazi-era racial, religious, and political persecution. Dr. Black then served as Senior Historian and Director of the Division of the Senior Historian at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum from 1997 to 2015. Dr. Black has held various teaching positions at George Mason University, Catholic University, American University, and Columbia University. He received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin (Madison) in 1972 and his Ph.D. in History from Columbia University in 1981.

Scope and content of collection

The Peter Black papers consist of writings by Dr. Black; materials collected by Dr. Black while researching and writing his doctoral dissertation about Austrian Nazi leader Ernst Kaltenbrunner; reports compiled by Dr. Black while working for the Office of Special Investigations in the U.S. Department of Justice; material compiled for war crimes cases for which Dr. Black served as an expert witness; and source material documenting Dr. Black's career as a Holocaust scholar. The collection particularly emphasizes the denaturalization and deportation cases for which Dr. Black served as an expert witness in the United States, Canada, and England and the roles of local ethnic German collaborators in the Holocaust in German-occupied Eastern Europe. The collection particularly emphasizes the denaturalization and deportation cases for which Dr. Black served as an expert witness in the United States, Canada, and England and the roles of local ethnic German collaborators in the Holocaust in German-occupied Eastern Europe.

Writings and writing projects by Dr. Black (Series 1) consists of a master's thesis, dissertation proposal, student papers, presentations, and articles written by Dr. Black about the Holocaust.

Kaltenbrunner research (Series 2) consists of correspondence, index cards, printed material, publication files, and source material documenting Dr. Black's research for his dissertation on Ernst Kaltenbrunner (1903-1946), the Austrian-born SS general who served as Chief of the Reich Main Security Office from 1943 to 1945. Research material in this series includes extensive correspondence with Kaltenbrunner's son Hansjörg Kaltenbrunner, correspondence and interviews with other people who knew Ernst Kaltenbrunner, and correspondence with archival repositories holding original source material. Index cards contain Dr. Black's notes for his dissertation. This series includes a single original Holocaust-era document: Ernst Kaltenbrunner's April 20, 1944 postcard to his son. The remaining source material is copied from repositories such as the Berlin Document Center, Bundesarchiv Koblenz, Institut für Zeitgeschichte Munich, and the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) and documents Kaltenbrunner, the Third Reich, the Nazi party, the SS, and the administration of Nazi-occupied territories. This series also includes related secondary source printed materials. Publication materials document the production of Dr. Black's dissertation and its subsequent publication.

Series 3 consists of reports written or co-written by Dr. Black for the Office of Special Investigations (OSI) about accused Holocaust perpetrators and collaborators Conrad Schellong, Otto von Bolschwing, Viorel Trifa, [Misc. Trawniki Concentration Camp Investigations], and Kurt Waldheim. This series also includes two OSI reports about Robert Jan Verbelen and Josef Mengele that were not written by Dr. Black.

Expert witness cases (Series 4) consists of Dr. Black's expert reports and testimony, correspondence, court records, and source material related to denaturalization and deportation cases for which Dr. Black served as an expert witness in the United States, Canada, and England. The cases relate to men who illegally or fraudulently entered the United States, Canada, or England after World War II by disguising their identities or lying about atrocities they committed or abetted during the Holocaust. The cases documented in this series include Jaroslaw Bilaniuk, Johann Breyer, Peter Egner, Jacob Fast, Mychailo Fostun, Fedir Kwoczak, Iwan Mandycz, Jakiw Palij, Michael Seifert, [KdS Warsaw Investigation], Mikola Wasyluk, and Vladas Zajancuskas.

Jaroslaw Bilaniuk (1923-2007), was born in Ukraine, trained at the Trawniki training camp, and served at the Trawniki labor camp in an anti-partisan unit and as a guard for civilian forced laborers. He immigrated to the United States in 1949 and became a naturalized US citizen in 1957. The OSI filed its denaturalization case against him in 2002, but he died before his case was completed.

Johann Breyer (1925-2014) was born in the ethnic German farming village of Neuwalldorf, Czechoslovakia (now Nová Lesná, Slovakia). In 1942 he enlisted in the Waffen SS and was assigned as a guard at Buchenwald and Auschwitz. He immigrated to the United States in 1952 and became a naturalized US citizen in 1957. The OSI filed its denaturalization case against him in 1992, and he was denaturalized in 1993, but the federal court rejected his deportation order. In 2013 Germany issued an arrest warrant for him which was carried out in 2014, but he died prior to his extradition hearing.

Peter Egner (1922-2011) was born in the former Yugoslavia served on an Einsatzgruppe during the Nazi occupation of Yugoslavia, worked for the Sicherheitsdienst (SD), and escorted a train of Roma and Sinti prisoners to Auschwitz during the Holocaust. He immigrated to the United States after the war and became a naturalized US citizen in 1966. He died one month before his denaturalization case was to open.

Jacob Fast (approximately 1910-?) was born in Ukraine and served with a German security police force attached to the Schutzstaffel during the Holocaust. He immigrated to Canada in 1947 but was stripped of his Canadian citizenship in 2007.

Mychailo Fostun (1925-2004) was born in Ukraine. He trained at the SS camp at Trawniki, participated in the suppression of the Warsaw ghetto uprising and the Bialystok ghetto uprising, and served in the 14th SS Division Galicia. He acquired British citizenship after the war and was facing denaturalization but died in 2004 in a car crash in Ukraine before he could be prosecuted.

Fedir Kwoczek (1921–2003) was born in Ukraine. He served as a guard at the Trawniki and Poniatowa labor camps, participated in the suppression of the Warsaw ghetto uprising and the Bialystok ghetto uprising, and was a member of the SS Streibel Battalion. He immigrated to the United States after the war, was denaturalized in 2002, and died in 2003 while appealing his denaturalization.

Iwan Mandycz (1920-?) served as a guard at the Trawniki and Poniatowa camps. He immigrated to the United States and became a naturalized US citizen in 1955. He was denaturalized in 2005.

Jakiw Palij (1923-?) was born in Ukraine. He served as a guard at the Trawniki labor camp and as a member of the SS Streibel Battalion. He immigrated to the United States after the war, was denaturalized in 2003 and ordered deported in 2004, but no country would receive him.

Michael Seifert (1924-2010) was born in Ukraine. He worked for the Kommandeur der Sicherheitspolizei (KdS) in Nikolayev and the Befehlshaber der Sicherheitspolizei (BdS) in Italy and served as an SS guard at the Bolzano and Forli transit camps. He immigrated to Canada after the war. He was convicted in absentia in 2000 by a military tribunal in Verona, Italy, on nine counts of murder committed while he was an SS guard at Bolzano. He was extradited from Canada in 2008 and died in an Italian military prison.

[KdS Warsaw Investigation] (1910-2001) was alleged to have been an Unterscharführer with the Warsaw Gestapo between 1939 and 1945 and to have helped liquidate Jewish ghettos in Poland, Greece, the former USSR, and Yugoslavia.

Mikola Wasyluk (1923-2010) was born in Ukraine. He served as a guard at the Trawniki and Budzyn labor camps. He immigrated to the United States in 1949, was denaturalized in 2001, and ordered deported in 2002, but no country would receive him.

Vladas Zajančkauskas (1915-2013) was born in Lithuania. He trained at the SS camp at Trawniki and participated in the liquidation of the Warsaw ghetto. He immigrated to the United States in 1950 and was ordered deported in 2007 but no country would receive him.

Subject files and source materials (Series 5) consist of additional source materials that complement source materials found in Series 2 and Series 4. Topics include Otto von Bolschwing, German-occupied Ukraine, Odilo Globocnik, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Wasyl Lytwyn, Arthur Nebe, Schutzstaffel, Selbstschutz, Sonderdienst, Trawniki, Viorel Trifa, and Yugoslavia. Sources include the Berlin Document Center (BDC), Bundesarchiv, National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), and the Institut für Zeitgeschichte, Munich. This series also includes index descriptions of records from FSB Archive Moscow; court records from the Berezowskyj, Kwoczek, Demjanjuk, and Mandycz cases; research notes; and reference files.
