Title: Armand Eisler papers, 1939-1957

Extent: 2 linear inches
23 microfiche.

Provenance: Herman Spitz inherited Armand Eisler's papers shortly before his emigration to the United States. The collection became the property of Spitz's stepdaughter, Jill Grossvogel at the time of Spitz' death. Grossvogel donated the papers to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in November 1989.

Biographical/Historical Note: Armand Eisler (b. May 6, 1880, Paris, France, d. September 16, 1957, Miami, Florida) graduated from the University of Vienna with degrees in law and political science. In 1938, Eisler was a prisoner in Dachau concentration camp and subsequently imprisoned in Buchenwald concentration camp. The Nazis released from Buchenwald in 1939 and he immediately immigrated to the United States. Eisler served as chairman of many committees, among them, the K.Z. American Association of Former Inmates of Concentration Camps.
