Historical note

HICEM was founded in 1927 by three organizations. Its name is an acronym based on the names of the founders: HIAS (The Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, New York), ICA (The Jewish Colonization Association, Paris) and Emigdirect, Berlin. The HICEM’s mission was to provide informational, legal, material and practical aid to Jewish emigrants.

In the 1930s HICEM had 51 committees in 23 countries around the world. HICEM operated in all countries sending or receiving Jewish emigrants. However, there were exceptions in the the USA, Germany, and Palestine, where the same functions were performed by HIAS, the German Jewish Aid Society, and the Jewish Agency, respectively. The records in this collection consist of the office files of the HICEM up to 1940.
In this collection, there are records from the administrative council of HICEM, including protocols of meetings, numerous reports from the HICEM’s bureau of statistics, and records from the finance department. Other materials include, reports on the status of Jews in various places, trip reports, lists of emigrants, reports on conferences, including minutes taken at the 1938 Evian conference, bulletins and periodicals issued by HICEM, and press and media clippings.

Also included are correspondences with organizations in various countries, including activity and financial reports of local HICEM branches, and correspondences with local charities and Jewish communities. Other materials include reports on the status of Jews in various places, trip reports, personal files on some immigrants, and reports on conferences, including minutes taken at the 1938 Evian conference, and press and media clippings.

Countries represented include: Australia, Albania, Belgium, Bulgaria, Brazil, Great Britain, Hungary, Venezuela, Haiti, Germany, Holland, Greece, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Egypt, Spain, Italy, Canada China, Cuba, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Mexico, Norway, Paraguay, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Syria, the USA, Trinidad, Turkey, Uruguay, France, Czechoslovakia, Chili, Switzerland, Ecuador, Estonia, and Yugoslavia.

There is also correspondence with international organizations like the League of Nations and OZE, the Jewish Child Welfare Organization. On June 10, 1940, with the Nazi invasion of Paris, the HICEM’s office shut down. The documents in this collection were left behind and fell into the hands of the Germans. HICEM reopened in Lisbon Portugal on June 26, 1940, and continued to work through-out the war.
