Historical Note

Główna Komisja Ścigania Zbrodni przeciwko Narodowi Polskiemu (Main Commission for the Investigation of Crimes against the Polish Nation), was established in 1945 and operated under the Polish Ministry of Justice. The purpose of the Main Commission for the Investigation of German Crimes in Poland was investigating the crimes committed by the Nazis on Polish soil and other occupied countries, and in Germany during the period 1939-1945. The Main Commission collected documentation, conducted investigations and prepared indictments, and publications. The Main Commission prepared investigations of all lawsuits against the Nazis, judged by the Supreme National Tribunal in Poland. Currently the Main Commission is a part of the Instytut Pamięci Narodowej–Komisja Ścigania Zbrodni przeciwko Narodowi Polskiemu (Institute of National Remembrance-Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation).

Scope and Content of Collection

This collection contains investigation case files concerning labor camps for Jews, the murder of individual Jews, and the mass execution of Jews inside and outside the camps in various districts of the Poznań region. This documentation was collected by the Główna Komisja Ścigania Zbrodni przeciwko Narodowi Polskiemu (Main Commission for the Investigation of Crimes against the Polish Nation).

System of Arrangement

List of 26 people killed in September 1939.

Correspondence, copies of death certificates, lists of killed, lists of their relatives, testimonies, and pictures of grave sites. Case closed: it is assumed that no crime was committed. The 26 persons died because they stepped on field that was mined. In Polish. 230 pages.

Piątkowo German Wehrmacht (Army) killed Polish POW. Bodies buried in common grave in Dłutowo, district Łask. Relation of round-up and forced eviction of Poles from Dłutowo (as it was done in other communities by Bydgoszcz). The evacuees were driven out to Lublin region. Correspondence and testimony. Case closed: not enough evidence and witnesses to continued investigation. no date. 20 pages.

In June 1941 in Czarnocin, a German agent Paul killed a Pole from Sochaczyn at the railroad station. The Poles carried Communist literature and two false ID cards, some anti-German leaflets. Correspondence, testimony, and final report. In Polish. no date. 70 pages.

Case against crimes of the 3rd company IV police battalion, committed in June 1944 in Wola Rokoszycka, district Piotrków Trybunalski. During pacification of Korytnica village, two men killed; 18 brutally beaten and taken to a concentration camp. Lack of victims and witnesses' names; German printed matter relating to fighting of partisans in Rudka. List of names of German policemen. Among the ten listed victims name of Rywka Marien, Sura Cyli Janowica. This could have been a mixed group of partisans. Correspondence, testimonies, death certificates, and reports. In Polish. no date. 88 pages.

Case against 20 German officials in grey uniforms who surrounded the farm buildings of a German where several people were making oil. The five Germans killed a Pole from Lesisko, others were arrested and taken to the village Rękawice. From there with other prisoners to the prison of Tomaszów Marowiecki. Other Germans were hunting Jews. The man who was shot was deaf and did not hear the German command "up with the hands." The two Jews hiding in the house of the German Amelia Szplet were Estera Nuska and Jacob. Case closed: perpetrators not in Poland, witness testimony not conclusive. Correspondence, testimony, and disposition. no date. 62 pages.

German Police of the 29th district in Pabianice murdered nine Poles during the time of 1940-1944. Correspondence, testimony, reports, and disposition of case. In Polish. 1977. 76 pages.

Killing of four Poles in September 1939 in Chabielice, district Bełhatów by German soldiers (Wehrmacht). Correspondence, reports, testimonies, death certificates, and disposition. no date. 234 pages.

Killing of nine persons (four names asserted) by Gestapo and German police on November 1943 in Stróza district Bogumiłowice for killing a policeman in Wola Wydrzynna. Investigating report (first page is missing) about the mood of the Polish population after the arrest of Polish priests. The Poles were very depressed but did not make any outward remarks against the Germans. There is a rumor going on about a formation of an anti-Bolshevik battalion. The order to have the Poles greet respectively all Germans in uniform brought about a sizable increase in application for the "Volksliste." The young Poles are reluctant greeters. No underground activity was identified. In October 1941, the Secret State Police publicly executed ten Poles in retaliation for setting fire to a German estate in Przesław. For atonement for the killing of the police sergeant Grüner, on orders of SS chief, district Wieluń, in Wächtern in November 1941, ten politically and criminally charged ten Polish prisoners publicly executed. The leaders and members of the underground organization "Z.W.Z." (Association of Armed Polish Underground Forces) are being sought and arrested in Kalisz. One Volks German was also found and caught. All together there were 156 arrests made during October 25 - November 8, 1941. List of 15 transgressions or criminal acts among them dealings with Jews, Poles, hostile attitude towards Germans, sabotage, treason, etc. Distribution list showing the names of SS authorities in Poznań Kalisz.
