Historical Note

The Centralny Komitet Żydów w Polsce, CKŻP (Central Committee of Jews in Poland) was the most prominent official Jewish institution in Poland following the Holocaust. CKŻP attended to the needs of Jews from fall 1944 until 1950. It sponsored a variety of programs, providing food, shelter, education, medical assistance, cultural activities, and employment services and vocational training. The CKŻP also supervised the repatriation of Jews from the Soviet Union and assisted with legal emigration. A government-funded body, it was supported financially by the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee.

Scope and Content of Collection

Contains index books and registration forms for Polish Jewish survivors, compiled by the Central Committee of Polish Jews, Department of Statistics. The indexes contain only basic information; the registration forms include each survivor's date of birth, mother's name, address in 1939, postwar address, and ghettos and camps of imprisonment during the Holocaust.

System of Arrangement

The system of arrangement of the source repository has been preserved in the microfilmed reels. This collection is arranged chronologically and alphabetically in five series: Series 1. Index books (Reels 1- 5); Series 2. Individual registration forms for Polish Jewish survivors, 1946: A- W ( Reels 6 -13); Series 3. individual registration forms for Polish Jewish survivors, 1947: A-W ( Reels 14- 193); Series 4.
