The organization of the Council of the Elders in Częstochowa

The Council was called to life by the authorities on 1 October 1939. In the beginning of 1940 the following people made up the council: (names are listed on p. 11). During the reporting time the make-up of the Council changed because some of the members withdraws, renouncing their post (one person left the country). In place of the outgoing persons, new people were added to that by the end of the reporting period the Council counted 25 persons (alphabetical roster follow on p. 11).

B. The Presidium

Similarly to the changes in the Council memberships, the personal make-ups of the Presidium underwent change. In the beginning Kopenski Lejb, president; Bromberg Lejb, vice-president; Berliner Nathan Dawid; Gerichter Chil, and; Newfeld Maurycy. Already after the first quarter of 1940, the roster was changed and the following persons were making up the presidium: Kopinski Lejb and 6 other members. Model of the ID for the president of the Council, 4" x 6" (p. 15), with the remark that he is to be free of all forced labor.

The Arbitrary Commission for the Committee of Elders in Częstochowa came into being as a consequence of the resolution of the general meeting of lawyers and apprentices which took place on 29 December 1939. The Commission began its work in January 1940. The Arbitrary Commission bases its activity on the organizational statute and on general and internal proceedings regulations. To the scope of the Commission belongs the giving of legal help to Jewish population and especially to decide in the course of conciliatory or amicable proceedings in civil cases between the parties of whom at least one is Jewish. In the first quarter of 1940, 24 members made up the Arbitrary Commission. During the year one of the members left and ten were added, so that at the end of December 1940 the Commission counted 35 persons.

The chairman of the Arbitrary Commission is M. Konarski, lawyer, vice-chairman; Rajchman, lawyer; A. Rodał, secretary. Following is the agenda of the Commission: 1) conciliatory proceedings; 2) decision in amiable proceedings; 3) legal clinic.

The course of a proceeding is as follows: one party asks, applies, names the reasons and circumstances of the case, that the other party appears in the commission's office for the purpose of reconciliation. The Commission sets and collects payment, eventually releases the indigent party from charges. As next the secretary of the Commission submits the application to the chairman of the Commission for a decree. The chairman sets the time for the debate, and the Secretary calls the parties in for the purpose of reconciliation. The proceedings are conducted by a member of the Arbitrary Commission, usually a lawyer with the participation of the apprentice clerk who acts as a recorder. In case that the proceedings does not end in reconciliation, the chairman of the reconciliatory proceeding proposes to the parties that they sign up for conciliatory trial.

- 213/10 The Committee of Elders in Częstochowa. Reports and Jewish Police Letters to the Presidium of the Jewish Council concerning arrests, forced labor camps, punitive decisions of Jewish police, functionaries by the II Polish Police station in Częstochowa. The fur coats action. Passes for trade and commercial departments and others. 1940 - September 1942. 187 pages.
- 2 213/11 Duty rosters of the Jewish Police of the East District of Częstochowa. October - December 1941. 142 pages. Duty rosters with the name of the group leader; names of Jewish policemen, dates, length of shift (hours), number of sick policemen, kind or service and where, on different posts throughout Częstochowa. Mostly watched the workers going and coming from the Aryan side who had to report to the police station and have their passes checked. Sometimes they would take a worker to his destination. The roster is marked with letters and numbers:
- A - sentry guarding coal
 - A1 - guard sent for a physician
 - A2 - free to a certain hour
 - A3 - sent to hospital
 - A4 - special action
 - A5 - accompanying a worker
 - A6 - sent to headquarters
 - A7 - strengthening another duty station
 - A8 - sent to another place, etc.
- At any rate, everyone's time had to be accounted for. The names are handwritten, mostly illegible. Cannot find out if the same policemen had steady duties or if the groups were changed from one post to another. Some (1-7) were employed temporarily. On some sheets, names were crossed out. It could have been a check on the sentries. Certain time was set aside for briefing of policemen on duty.
- 213/12 Notes concerning personal, disciplinary matters of the Jewish policemen. Name lists of the Jewish policemen, date of birth, and address (125 persons). Reports of thefts. Sick call, reports. Physician's certificates. Rooms assignments. 150 names of auxiliary functionaries. Affidavits (marriages). October 1941 - 1942. 64 pages.
- Control lists of persons handed into Jewish police custody. April -

- 213/13 August 1942. 36 pages.
- 213/14 Duty plans of the Jewish police, Section I. Duty rosters, group leaders, guardsmen, names of people not reporting to duty on account of sickness. Kind of duty designated by "A" list, etc. Each hour accounted for. Duty encompasses different sections. Guarding camps. Entrance check control. Black-out control. Sanitation action. Contract with other sections, etc. Everyday briefings at 7:30 - 7:45 am. How to fight street selling and buying. How to deal with people leaving the ghettos without passes. Better control of people returning from work on the outside. September 17 - 16 December 1941. 250 pages.
- 213/15 Book of "events and orders" of the Jewish Police. Events on rioted by days and time of the day. Many deliveries of people to different offices. Distributions of potatoes, packages, etc. Accompanying people to their homes after work, and taking sick to the hospital. Forced delivery of insubordinate (25 policemen engaged one activity on 21 June 1942). Dealing with people who are in charge of houses and who do not collect monies for beggars. The police acts on recommendations (written or telephone) of the German or Jewish authorities. Lists of persons to arrive for work and annotated if the requested person showed. More and more special escorting for forced labor. Of lesser events thefts were noted. Names of people escorted are not arranged alphabetically but dispersed through the book. June - August 1942. 392 pages.
- 213/16 Instructions of the Częstochowa Chief of Police to the Jewish Police of the ghetto. The ghetto was under the control of the Second Polish Police section: discipline has to be maintained. Persons of lower rank in the Jewish police have to salute the higher ups. Reports have to be worded in a certain way. Even the Jewish Police must wear Star of David arm bands (9 April 1941). A copy of orders to close certain streets and establish a Jewish ghetto (28 streets). Among others: all Poles have to move out by April 17, if they do not go on their own, they will be forcible removed and allowed only 25 kilos per person (same goes for the Jews from non-Jewish neighborhoods). The Jewish Committee is to assign living space to the Jews moving by April 17. Jewish businesses outside the future ghetto are temporarily excused from displacement. Under the penalty of 10,000zt, or prison, no Jew can leave the ghetto without a pass. 24 April 1941. 18 pages.
