Biographical Note

Centralne Towarzystwo Opieki nad Sierotami, CENTOS (Associations for the Care of Orphans, CENTOS), was an organization for the care of Jewish orphans, established in Poland in 1924 as a federation of nine regional committees: 1. Congress Poland (Warsaw, Łódź, Lublin, Kielce); 2. Polesie (Pińsk); 3. Volhynia (Rovno); 4. Białystok; 5. The Committee of Yekopo for the regions of Vilna and Nowogrodek; 6. The city of Vilna; 7. Eastern Galicia (Lwów, Stanislaw, Tarnopol); 8. Western Galicia (Cracow); 9. The city of Poznań. CENTOS, a veteran organization that had accumulated considerable experience in dealing with orphaned children during the period between the two wars, rapidly geared itself to coping with the orphanages during World War II. In the Warsaw ghetto the activities of CENTOS included managing kitchens and focal points for children as well as managing boarding houses and day houses. CENTOS also took care of refugees' children, arranged reading and playrooms for them, and organized half-day camps for children. CENTOS published two monthlies, Unzer Kind (in Yiddish) and Przegląd Społeczny (in Polish), which dealt with the theoretical and practical problems of child care and Jewish orphans.

Scope and Content of Collection

Contains reports, minutes, remarks to reports, inspection reports, kitchen inventory, kitchen menu, financial statements, correspondence, and a variety of documents relating to the work of the CENTOS kitchens and boarding houses in the ghetto in Warsaw, Poland, 1941-1942. Records document virtually all aspects of CENTOS kitchens activities, including organizational structure, kitchen expenses, staffing, kitchen menu, food supplies, falsification of food supplies, unfair accusation of shortages, disinfection of the kitchens, coal supplies, and all elements of inspection tasks.

System of Arrangement

The system of arrangement of the source repository has been preserved in the microfilmed reels. Arranged thematically and chronologically, in four series: Series 1, Organizational structure and reports; Series 2. Financial statements; Series 3, CENTOS correspondence; Series 4, Kitchen's menu.
