Scope and Content of Collection

The collection contains postwar records relating to Holocaust survivors activities to reconstruct their existence in Radom and its outskirts. It includes protocols of the sessions of the Board of the Committee, materials of its Historical Commission, files of the Jewish Religious Congregation, and documentation concerning specific issues such as productivity of the Jewish people, searching for missing persons, restoration of the synagogue, attempts to regain possession of the Jewish hospital, and the like. It also includes correspondence which illustrates the changes in the numbers of Jewish population staying in Radom (more than 1100 people in 1945; less than 30 people by 1950) The documents relate mainly to Radom, and some to Kozienice county (Jedlińsk, Szydłowiec, Kozienice).

System of Arrangement

The system of arrangement of the source repository has been preserved in the microfilmed reels and digital files.
