Biographical Note

The plan of the mass extermination of Polish Jews on the territory of the GG and other places of extermination has been given the cryptonym of “Aktion Reinhardt” (Operation Reinhard). During the operation, as many as two million people were murdered in Bełżec, Majdanek, Sobibor and Treblinka, almost all of whom were Jews.

Scope and Content of Collection

Records of Majdanek concentration camp on the plunder of Jewish property, including “receipts” for confiscated valuables, copies of bills for goods sold, requests for supplies from storehouses, inventories, and name lists of Jewish forced laborers. Some documents concern valuables transferred from Lublin-Majdanek to the storehouse on Chopin Street. Some of the property went directly to individual SS officers, or was sent to the Reich.

System of Arrangement

The system of arrangement of the source repository has been preserved in the microfilmed reel.
