YIVO archivist Zosa Szajkowski arranged the collection in alphabetical order in 1957. A grant from the S.H. and Helen R. Scheuer Foundation assisted in further processing in 1988. Centre de Documentation Juive Contemporaine in Paris and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum provided additional funds for the microfilming of Folder 22.3 in 1998. The U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum Archives received the microfilm in May 1999.

Biographical/historical note: Established in 1941 under pressure from Eichmann's office, the Union Générale des Israélites de France was made up of two sections: one in the northern-occupied area and the other in the south. While both councils provided welfare for their Jews, UGIF-N cautiously complied with German demands, while UGIF-S tried various means to thwart German plans.
