Record Group Number: RG-43.124M

Accession Number: 2009.234

Extent: 2 microfilm reels (35 mm); 943 digital images (JPEG)

Provenance: The Archives of the Department of the Jura is the owner and holder of originals. The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Archives received the collection from the Mémorial de la Shoah, who paid for the costs of reproduction, via the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's International Archives Project in November 2009.

Restrictions on access: No restrictions on access.

Restrictions on use: Authorization from the Director of the Archives of the Department of the Jura required to duplicate microfilm reels for other archives. No publication of materials on the Internet, World Wide Web, or similar network without the permission of the Director of the Archives of the Department of the Jura.

Organization and arrangement: Arrangement is thematic.

Language: In French.

Preferred citation: Standard citation for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Curatorial Affairs Division, Archives Branch.

Scope and Content: Contains documents from the Jura, a mountainous, sparsely-populated region on the eastern border of France, once part of the Franche-Comté. The documents concern the anti-Jewish laws put into effect, certain Jews who held government jobs and were given special permission to keep them, the cancellation of Vichy laws allowing lawful pillaging of Jewish property under “Aryanization”, letters that singled out Jews in hiding to the authorities, documents dealing with foreigners who had been given exile in 1939, arrests of Jews by German authorities, and post-war Zionist youth camps.
