Administrative history

The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) was an international relief agency, largely dominated by the United States but representing 44 nations. Founded in 1943, it became part of the United Nations in 1945, and it largely shut down operations in 1947. Its purpose was to "plan, co-ordinate, administer or arrange for the administration of measures for the relief of victims of war in any area under the control of any of the United Nations through the provision of food, fuel, clothing, shelter and other basic necessities, medical and other essential services". Its staff of civil servants included 12,000 people, with headquarters in New York. Funding came from many nations, and totaled $3.7 billion, of which the United States contributed $2.7 billion; Britain $625 million and Canada $139 million. The Administration of UNRRA at the peak of operations in mid-1946 included five types of offices and missions with a staff totaling nearly 25,000: The Headquarters Office in Washington, The European Regional Office (London), the Twenty-nine servicing offices and missions (2 area offices in Cairo and Sydney; 10 liaison offices and missions in Belgium, Denmark, France, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Trieste; 12 procurement offices in Argentina, Brazil, Chile and later Peru, Cuba, India, Mexico, South Africa, Southern Rhodesia, Turkey, Uruguay, Venezuela; 6 offices for procurement of surplus military supplies in Caserta and later Rome, Honolulu, Manila, New Delhi, Paris, Shanghai), the sixteen missions to receiving countries (Albania, Austria, Byelorussia, China, Czechoslovakia, the Dodecanese Islands, Ethiopia, Finland, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Korea, the Philippines, Poland, Ukraine, Yugoslavia), and the Displaced Persons Operations in Germany.

UNRRA cooperated closely with dozens of volunteer charitable organizations, who sent hundreds of their own agencies to work alongside UNRRA. In operation only three years, the agency distributed about $4 billion worth of goods, food, medicine, tools, and farm implements at a time of severe global shortages and worldwide transportation difficulties. The recipient nations had been especially hard hit by starvation, dislocation, and political chaos. It played a major role in helping Displaced Persons return to their home countries in Europe in 1945-46. Its UN functions were transferred to several UN agencies, including the International Refugee Organization and the World Health Organization. As an American relief agency, it was largely replaced by the Marshall Plan, which began operations in 1948.

Public information work in UNRRA began with a small staff taken over from OFRRO which worked at the Atlantic City Council session of November 1943. The headquarters staff in early 1946 numbered more than sixty, who were grouped in a Director's Office; Branches for Writing and Editing, Regional Operations, and Area Service; and Sections dealing with Radio, Organized Groups, Visual Media, Trade Press, and Magazines. The functions of the Office are sufficiently evident from these titles.

The accounting and financial organization of UNRRA experienced the most involved administrative development and went through the most numerous and difficult changes of policy and procedure in the agency. Historian Fred M Bellows identifies in "Historical Monograph on the Administration of UNRRA's Accounts and Finances" (30 April 1948) eleven major changes of organizational structure in less than four years. Serious differences on major policy questions occurred in the top levels of the staff, and the Committee on Financial Control and the External Auditors were often strong in their criticism of the procedures and the reports produced. For present purposes it is not feasible to attempt a description or an appraisal of the UNRRA accounting system, nor is it possible to present its administrative history in detail. The brief outline below indicates the organizational structure for the period after 1 August 1947, with some references to earlier arrangements.

I. Controller. This post was established as of 10 January 1946, and by action of 16 April 1946 it was set up in the Director General's Office as the principal financial control and accounting agency. That responsibility had previously been held by the Bureau of Finance and Administration which had operated in this field through the Treasurer until July 1945 and thereafter through a Director of Accounts and Audit. In October 1948 the Controller became Administrator for Liquidation.

II. Assistant Controller for Budgetary Accounting and Statistics Established 1 April 1947, this office assumed the functions of the former Division of Budgetary Accounting (earlier the Budget Division and the Budget Control Branch) and the Division of Resources and Operating Reports (formerly the Statistics and Reports Branch), as well as some functions of the former Division of Finance. The subordinate units of the Assistant Controller's staff underwent several changes, but the files of only one, the Financial Services Branch, remain as an entity. A. Executive Office B. Financial Services Branch This unit appears to have been organized in February 1945 as the Financial Management Section (after 1 July the Financial Resources Section) of the Finance Division.

III. Assistant Controller for Internal Audit. An Internal Audit Division had been established under the Treasurer by July 1944, later becoming a Branch in the Division of Accounts and Audit and, in April 1946, the Internal Audit staff in the Bureau of Accounts and Finance. On 1 April 1947, it became the Headquarters Internal Audit Staff under the Deputy Controller. When the latter resigned as of 31 July 1947, the unit became a primary division of the Controller Office under an Assistant Controller.

IV. Assistant Controller for Fiscal Accounting This office, also established on 1 April 1947, assumed responsibility for the functions of the previous Divisions of Accounts, Commodity Records, and Finance, except for those Finance Division functions transferred to the Assistant Controller for Budgetary Accounting and Statistics.

A. Executive Office

B. Disbursing Division Originally a part of the Treasury and later of the Finance Division (after 1 October 1945 the Disbursing and Banking Section of that Division), this office became a Division with the reorganization of 1 April 1947. It was made up of three units:

- a. Payroll and Check writing Branch (formerly the Employee Accounts Unit and the Payroll Section of the Accounts Division)
- b. Banking Branch
- c. Headquarters Cash Control Branch

C. Accounting Division

Originating as part of an Accounts and Audit Division in the Bureau of Finance and Administration, this office became the Accounts Division of the Office of the Treasurer on 1 March 1944. On 1 September 1945, it was again joined with the Internal Audit Division to form an Accounts and Audit Division reporting to the Deputy Director General for Finance and Administration. On 16 April 1946 it again became the Accounts Division, this time in the Bureau of Accounts and Finance. On 1 April 1947 it was established as the Accounting Division under the Assistant Controller for Fiscal Accounting. It consisted of four major units

- a. Coding and Expenditure Accounting Branch
- b. Financial Statements and General Ledger Branch
- c. Commodity Accounting Branch (first established as a unit in September 1945)
- d. Commodity Records Branch (originally, until early 1946, the Records and Reports Division of the Bureau of Supply) (The latter two branches operated together during 1946 as a Division of Commodity Records)

D. Audits and Claims Division Established on 1 April 1947 to group the functions of the former Voucher Audit and Freight Audit Branches of the Accounts Division and the Insurance and Claims Branch of the Finance Division.

- a. Executive Office. The Office of the Director appears to have carried on the functions of the former Freight Audit Branch, which had existed since 15 February 1946 in the Accounts Division, doing work previously carried on in the Ocean Shipping Division, Bureau of Supply.
- b. Voucher Audit Branch. Voucher audit work began in the Accounts Division in 1944, and after 1 July 1944 a Voucher Audit Section or Branch (sometimes combined with the payroll function) existed in that Division until formation of the Audits and Claims Division.
- c. Certifying Officer. (No identifiable files remain.)
- d. Insurance and Claims Branch. (Transferred to the General Counsel's Office on 1 May 1947.)
