Organization and Arrangement: Arrangement is thematic. Organized in the following order: File C10/304 - C10/624.

Language: English, other languages

Preferred Citation: Standard citation for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Collections Division, Archives Branch.

Scope and Content: Contains correspondence of the Paris Office of the World Jewish Congress with international organizations, including NGOs and Jewish organizations. Also contains reports and other records related to the following subjects: missing Jews, liberated Jews, restitution and compensation claims, situation of Jews during the war, and Jewish affairs in France and North Africa.

Biography: The World Jewish Congress, an international Jewish representative organization, was formed in 1936. In July 1940 the headquarters of the World Jewish Congress was moved from Geneva, Switzerland, to New York City, N.Y., due to World War II. Instrumental in its founding were the American Jewish Congress (AJC), established in 1918, and the Comit  des D l gations Juives (Committee of Jewish Delegations), which was founded in 1919.

RELICO

The Relief Committee for the War-Stricken Jewish Population (RELICO) was established by Dr. Abraham Silberschein in Geneva in Sept. 1939, under the auspices of the World

Jewish Congress. RELICO's original goals were to search for missing relatives and provide monetary and legal assistance to Jewish refugees. However, Silberschein soon concentrated his efforts on refugee activities.
