Title: Holocaust related records from European archives collected by Yad Vashem, 1939-1960.

Extent: 33 microfilm reels

Provenance: Contains materials filmed at: Former Communist Party Archive Kiev, Ukraine; Belorussian Archives; Joodsche Coordinate Commissie of Geneve, Switzerland; Mogilev Oblast Archive; probably the former CP Archiv, Minsk; State Archives of Belarus, Minsk; Brest Oblast Archives; Belarus Oblast Archive, Brest City Administration; Pinsk Gebiets Kommissar of Generalkommissariat Volhyn & Polliya, 1941-1944; Pinsk City Administration, 1941-1944; District Council of Novomysh (Novaya Mysh); Correspondence of the Chairman of Judenrat of Pinsk and the Budapest Archive. The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Archives received the collection from Yad Vashem in 1996.

Restrictions on Access: No restrictions on access.

Restrictions on Use: Restrictions on use apply. Requests for reproduction must be directed to the Yad Vashem. Researchers may not publish any information on the Internet or any other publicly accessible on-line network without permission from the Yad Vashem

Organization and Arrangement: Arranged by source archive. Most files have a Yad Vashem number beginning with M-37/, M-41/ or M-16/ listed first, followed by a Soviet fond/opis/delo number. Some files have two Yad Vashem numbers, a few only have a Soviet number and some have only a Yad Vashem number. Many documents are incomplete and, in some cases, illegible.

Language: Russian, Ukrainian, German, Byelorussian, Dutch, Hungarian.

Preferred Citation: Standard citation for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Curatorial Affairs Division, Archives Branch.

Scope and Content: Consists of records filmed at various European Archives. The collection contains material regarding several different topics. A majority of the material concerns partisan groups active in the USSR, particularly in Belarus and Ukraine. This includes reports from partisan groups to Soviet leadership, names list of partisans in the different groups, as well as postwar memoirs and interviews of partisans. The remainder of the material is primarily concerned with Jewish life under German occupation in former Soviet lands, particularly the cities of Kiev, Pinsk, and Brest. This includes German decrees, tax documents for different Jewish businesses and individuals, names lists, and documents regarding Jewish passports and visas. Includes passports issued to Jewish residents of Brest (Belarus) in 1941 (organized alphabetically). There is also a small amount of material regarding Dutch Jews in the Netherlands and Switzerland.
