Title: Registration Cards of Jewish Refugees in Tashkent, Uzbekistan during WWII, 1941-1942.

Extent: 76 microfilm reels;
15 DVDs; 4 ¾ in.
149, 435 digital images: JPEG; 30.2 GB.

Provenance: From the Central State Archives of the Republic of Uzbekistan in Tashkent (Fond P-864, Registration and Reference bureau of the Commissariat of Internal Affairs (NKVD) of the Uzbek SSR). The original card catalogue consists of more than 250,000 cards stored in 193 catalogue boxes with a total number of ca. 339,250 evacuees who were registered by the Soviet authorities in February 1942. In 2004-2006 a group of local researchers of the Central Asia Research Project led by Professor Saidjon Kurbanov selected and digitized 156, 000 registration cards of Jewish evacuees and refugees available within this collection. With the funding provided by USHMM, Professor Saidjn Kurbanov and his colleagues in Tashkent compiled database consisting of 156, 000 names of Jewish evacuees along with digital images of their registration cards. The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Archives received the filmed collection via the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum International Archives Project in June 2007.

Historical Note: During WWII more than one million Jews from the former Soviet Union, including the recently annexed territories of Eastern Poland, Baltic countries, Bessarabia and Northern Bukovina, were evacuated by the Soviet authorities or managed to escape on their own into the Soviet interior before German troops marched into their towns and villages. A significant group of evacuees, including many Jewish families, arrived in Central Asia (Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tadjikistan and Turkmenistan) in 1941-1942.

Restrictions on Access: No restrictions on access.

Restriction on Use: Fair use only.

Organization and Arrangement: The collection is organized in an alphabetical order by last names of refugees.

Language: Russian

Preferred Citation: Standard citation for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Collections Divisions, Archives Branch.

Scope and Content: The collection contains 156,000 registration cards of Jewish refugees who arrived in Tashkent and were registered in February 1942. These registration cards list only those who came directly to Tashkent and then went to different localities in Uzbekistan. The card catalogue does not include those who arrived at other localities within the Uzbek Republic as well as significant number of Jews and non-Jews who came to Tashkent after February 1942 - including people joining their family in Uzbekistan from other parts of Soviet Union.
