

So after Zolli converted?

Before Zolli. Chief Rabbi of Rome was Rabbi Prato.

What was his name?

Prato.

Prato?

Mhm.

P-R-A-T-O. This is Rabbi Prato.

OK. And when was this taken?

That was taken-- he was a friend of Mussolini's. Mussolini wanted him because he was a leader of Jewish people. Mussolini was good to Jews, basically. The joke is that he said to Hitler, [INAUDIBLE] could you send me some Jews? There weren't many Jews in Italy.

So Prato-- Mussolini wanted him to go to the temple and get the Jews to give the gold and silver and diamonds, because he needed the money to give to Hitler. And Prato refused. So he said to him, you better leave. And he got him... And he went to Palestine. Rabbi Prato went to Palestine to live there.

I see there's a soldier sitting there. Is that you?

That was a [INAUDIBLE] welcoming of Rabbi Prato back to Italy. This was taken in Ostia.

In Ostia?

Ostia. I have another picture that shows groups of people were. All the refugees. And so Rabbi Prato-- he came back here, and we had this big party. This was taken in Ostia.

In the camp in Ostia?

Yeah.

Good.
