

Marcel Drimer
RG-50.106*0056

Marcel Drimer (né Marcelli Drimmer) was born on in Drohobycz, Poland on May 1, 1934 to Yacob and Laura (née Laura Gruber). His sister, Irena, is two years younger than him. His family was middle class and culturally Jewish. He had a close-knit extended family, and they would vacation at a nearby resort in the summer.

The Russians occupied his area until the Germans attacked in June 1941.