

Fred Gutter
RG-50.106*0127

Born Romuald Gutter on December 26, 1926 in Sanok, Poland

Family in Poland for many generations

Grandfather had farm, father sold fertilizer

Anti-semitic teacher in school

War began - father taken away, no school

2 months later, family went to Rymanov and then to relatives in Lvov

Late 1940 - Russians took him, mother and younger brother to train

Went to labor camp in Berezovsk in Ural mountains

Father taken to Japanese border for duration of war

Went to high school, mother cut down trees and worked in a bakery

After graduation he worked sewing uniforms and repaired sewing machines

End of war - father joined them in the Ural mountains

Early 1946 - went to DP camp Neu-Ulm in Germany

Sailed to Israel in 1948 - fought in War of Independence worked as a civilian for IDF repairing trucks married in 1959

Late 1959 - Sailed to US

Worked in electronics, opened up hearing aid business

Has 2 children

Feels no connection to Poland, wanted Eichmann to get the death sentence

Upset at President Reagan's trip to Bitburg

Remembering his experiences is very painful