

1989.0039.0032

Tape Index

Dan Berkovitz
Brooklyn, N.Y.

May, 1983

Side I

Hungarian Jew-Army duties as a machinist-German takeover in 1944 -Roundup of Jews in Budapest-Escape into the city-Survival by illegal acts-Swiss assistance to the Jews who weren't rounded up-Deportation to Austria-Movement by riverboats on the Danube after winter of labor-Theft of grain to save two lives-Arrival at Mautshause-Bombing of barracks area by Americans-Move to Gunskirken by 17,000-Himmler orders destruction-Camp liberated by Americans on May 4th, 1945-Survivors march 10 km to town-Arrival at base-20% death rate among survivors Illness after liberation-survival with cousin-Sister's survival at Auschwitz-Life in Munich after liberation-Earning a living in the United States-Psychiatric help at the Army Base in Europe-Positive attitude toward survival

Approximately 20 minutes of tape
The rest is blank--some of the tape is rather garbled.