

RG#: RG-50.120*020

TITLE: Oral history interview with Ben-Zion Blushtein

DATE: 3 July 1991

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 6 videocassettes (U-Matic), Protection copy
2 videocassettes (VHS), User copy

SUMMARY: Ben-Zion Blushtein - from Domachevo, in the Brest-Litovsk region. By chance survived a suicide attempt by his entire family during an "Aktion" intended to result in the final destruction of an entire town in the Soviet Union, which had fled to the forests and joined a group of partisans. Although not common practice, while part of this group, he managed to raise a Jewish child who had been found in the forest after being injured when he jumped from a train destined for Treblinka.