

RG-50.120*028

Kahane, David

He wrote a book entitled "Ghetto Lvov Diary"

- 1.01 He was born in 1903 in Grimaylov in Galicia. Talks about Rudolph Reder. Tells his story and how he was taking care of a small group of survivors.
- 1.06 Describes life in his village between 1903-1910. He studied in Tarnpol, Breslav and Vienna. Became a rabbi.
- 1.09 Returned to Lvov in 1929 and taught in a high school until 1941.
- 1.11 Germans entered Lvov in June 1941. He describes the slaughtering of Jews. He was taken to camp Janowski.
- 1.13 Describes life in the work camp. His belief in the Kaballah saved him.
- 1.19 He escaped camp and was hidden a Greek Orthodox monastery where he wrote a book about his experiences.
- 1.20 Describes cruelty of Gestapo Wilhouse and Blum.
- 1.28 Describes his meeting with Blum after the liberation.
- 1.31 Describes German atrocities in Lvov in July 1941.
- 1.35 The German organization of the Judenrat. The purpose and functions of the Judenrat.
- 1.39 The Jewish Police and its functions.
- 1.47 Head of Judenrat, Dr. Landesberg. How the Judenrat decided on whom to put on deportation lists.
- 2.02 Tells about Dr. Landesberg and the moral problems faced by the Judenrat and the Jewish Police.
- 2.13 Talks about his own family.
- 2.16 Observance of Jewish holidays in the camp.
- 2.19 Burning of synagogues in August 1941. Talks about secret worship in homes until winter of 1942. Action in March 1942 when 20,000 Jews were killed.
- 2.21 Describes the burning of his synagogue.

- 2.27 Hanukkah in camp Janowski. Selection and killing of 3,000 in camp.
- 2.35 Christmas of 1942
- 2.39 Passover in March 1943 and his work in the ghetto.
- 2.44 History of famous synagogue "Gildene Roise."
- 2.49 The fate of Rabbi Jecheskel Levin.