Summary: Aharon Carmi - (continuation from Diaspora Museum) from the village of Opotchno, a member of the Gordonia youth movement. Fought in the Warsaw ghetto uprising, a friend (and relative) of Eliezer Geller, a commander in the uprising. Has a phenomenal memory, able to give day-to-day account about the battle in Warsaw. Succeeded in escaping from the city after the uprising by way of the sewer system and reached the forests of Lymianki and Vishkov. Fought there with the partisans of the Ludowa Army, in which the Warsaw ghetto survivors established a fighting group in memory of Mordechai Anielewicz.
