

RG#: RG-50.120*094

TITLE: Oral history interview with Yehoshua Lior

DATE: 19 April 1991

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 2 videocassettes (U-Matic), Protection copy
1 videocassette (VHS), User copy

SUMMARY: Yehoshua Lior - from Lachava, a Jewish village in the Bielorusia. It's entire population of several hundred refused en masse, to follow German orders to go on their final journey, to the ditches where they would be killed, and instead they all fled to the forests. It is possible that this account is representative of other towns, but where there were no survivors.