I would like to thank our distinguished members of the Russian delegation. Lieutenant General Vasily Petrenko, for telling about his experiences of liberating Auschwitz and other camps. Major General Gorlinsky, for describing the liberation of camps on Russian soil and also the liberation of Dresden, and his very moving meeting with the American troops on the banks of the River Elbe. And also, Colonel Kotlyar of the Russian war trials, who described very movingly of the meaning of the war crimes and the trials, for him.

I would like to thank you very much for your firsthand account. And I hope it will become a part of our oral history. It was important for me especially, as a Jew, to hear from the three distinguished gentlemen. And I did mention the name of the Jews as the victims, both in the concentration camps and the various locations in the Soviet Union. Thank you very much. [RUSSIAN]
