

Kić, Janina RG-50.488.0182 born 06/15/1926 in Równy (Wołyń) interview 07/10/2003 interview length: 35 min

Localities : IZBICA , Równy, Bełżec, Wł oszczyce, Zamość, Lublin, Biłgoraj

Countries: Germany, Czechoslovakia, Slovakia, Hungary

Names : Janina Kić , Levy (name of the Czechoslovakian family that lived together with the witness) , Eva (daughter of the Levy's, 3 years old) , Grubelny (One of the Polish mass grave diggers) Engels (notorious German military policeman) , Szultz (an ethnic German Pole) , Krautz (two brothers Krautz, ethnic German Poles, owners of a restaurant that served the Germans) , Rivka Bremberg (a three-year-old Jewish baby saved by an aunt of Janina) , Stanisław Kozłowski (a Polish boy shot by the Germans at the Jewish cemetery in Izbice), Szymańska (aunt of Janina. She saved Rivka Bremberg)

Kić Janina, eyewitnessed

She witnessed the killing of a Czech. Jew being killed while trying to escape the executions at the cemetery

She witnessed how Engels executed a child and then the mother of that child while they were walking in the street.

She witnessed how a Jewish woman, marching in a column to the execution site, tossed a bundle into the hands of her aunt. The bundle contained a baby; it was Rivka Bremberg about 3 years old

She witnessed how Jews from foreign countries were begging for food

Summary provided by Sam Ponczak.