

Gita Engel Frankel

- Born in Kalisz, Poland, in 1925
- Survived Zdunska Wola and Lodz ghettos; Auschwitz; Stutthof and Praust labor camps, and the Praust Death March
- Father and younger brother murdered by Nazis
- Older brother died of starvation in the Lodz Ghetto
- Liberated by Russians in 1945
- Hospitalized for two and a half years following liberation
- Immigrated to the United States in 1957
- Legacy includes two children and five grandchildren

Video Project Funding provided by:
Leslie Wolf, Caryn Wolf Wechsler, Nancy Wolf, and Sherri Wolf
in memory of their great aunt, Hadasah Zehman, a Holocaust survivor from Racionz, Poland.

With additional support from:
The Saltzman Youth Panel of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland.

© Congregation Shaarey Tikvah, Beachwood, Ohio
A Custom Video Production

FACE TO FACE
A Holocaust Education Program at Congregation Shaarey Tikvah

Cover artwork by Jacob Hennenberg

Holocaust Survivor Gita Engel Frankel

Holocaust Survivor
Gita Engel Frankel

Filmed on February 23, 2006

PART OF THE
HADASAH ZEHMAN VIDEO COLLECTION
OF FACE TO FACE PRESENTATIONS