

Holocaust Survivor Zev Harel (Sarkas Herskovits)

Zev Harel
(Sarkas Herskovits)

- Born in 1930 in Kis-Sikarlo, a small village in Transylvania, Hungary
- Grandfather murdered by the Nazis
- Survived Auschwitz, Mauthausen and Ebensee
- Liberated by the Americans in 1945
- Rescued from a ditch by an African-American G.I.
- Participated in the Israeli War of Independence and lived in Israel for 14 years
- Immigrated to the United States in 1960 at age 30 for graduate studies
- Emeritus Professor of Social Work at Cleveland State University
- Legacy includes two children, hundreds of students, and authorship of many books

Video Project Funding provided by:
Leslie Wolf, Caryn Wolf Wechsler, Nancy Wolf, and Sherri Wolf
in memory of their great aunt, Hadasah Zehman, a Holocaust survivor from Racionz, Poland.

With additional support from:
The Saltzman Youth Panel of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland.

© Congregation Shaarey Tikvah, Beachwood, Ohio
A Custom Video Production

FACE TO FACE
A Holocaust Education Program at Congregation Shaarey Tikvah

Cover artwork by Jacob Hennenberg

Holocaust Survivor
Zev Harel
(Sarkas Herskovits)

Filmed on April 12, 2005

PART OF THE
HADASAH ZEHMAN VIDEO COLLECTION
OF FACE TO FACE PRESENTATIONS