

George Kronenberg

- Born in Warburg, Germany, in 1928
- Experienced Kristallnacht at the age of 10
- Family's apartment was robbed and vandalized on Kristallnacht; father was arrested and released the same day
- Left Germany with his twin sister on the Kindertransport in 1938
- Smuggled grandfather's pocket watch, a family heirloom, out of Germany
- Sister was mistreated by her foster family in England
- Parents were sent to Theresienstadt and then to Auschwitz, where they were murdered in 1944
- Immigrated to the United States in 1946 with his sister to live with an aunt and uncle in Cleveland

Video Project Funding provided by:
Leslie Wolf, Caryn Wolf Wechsler, Nancy Wolf, and Sherri Wolf
in memory of their great aunt, Hadasah Zehman, a Holocaust survivor from Racionz, Poland.

With additional support from:
The Saltzman Youth Panel of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland.

© Congregation Shaarey Tikvah, Beachwood, Ohio
A Custom Video Production

FACE TO FACE
A Holocaust Education Program at Congregation Shaarey Tikvah

Cover artwork by Jacob Hennenberg

Holocaust Survivor George Kronenberg

Holocaust Survivor George Kronenberg

Filmed on February 14, 2006

PART OF THE
HADASAH ZEHMAN VIDEO COLLECTION
OF FACE TO FACE PRESENTATIONS