

R

Mimi Schleissner Ormond

- Born in the Sudetenland, German-speaking Czechoslovakia, in 1927
- Sent in 1939 at the age of 12 to England on the Kindertransport
- Worked on a farm, lived in an unheated train car, and stayed in a castle in England
- Lived with an uncle in London and went to school to learn English and become a nursery school teacher
- Married an American soldier and immigrated to the United States
- Parents escaped through Italy and settled in Palestine, where the family was reunited after the war
- Took her three children to visit England and her hometown in the Czech Republic in 1996
- Legacy includes three children and two grandchildren

Video Project Funding provided by:

Leslie Wolf, Caryn Wolf Wechsler, Nancy Wolf, and Sherri Wolf in memory of their great aunt, Hadasah Zehman, a Holocaust survivor from Racionz, Poland.

With additional support from:

The Saltzman Youth Panel of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland.

© Congregation Shaarey Tikvah, Beachwood, Ohio

A Custom Video Production

FACE TO FACE
A Holocaust Education Program at Congregation Shaarey Tikvah

Cover artwork by Jacob Hennenberg

Holocaust Survivor Mimi Schleissner Ormond

Holocaust Survivor Mimi Schleissner Ormond

Filmed on October 31, 2006

PART OF THE
HADASAH ZEHMAN VIDEO COLLECTION
OF FACE TO FACE PRESENTATIONS