

Hannah Lenschitzki Rath

- Born in 1922 and raised in a small town in Germany
- In 1938, synagogues burned and Jewish businesses looted on Kristallnacht -The Night of Broken Glass
- Survived the Riga ghetto and the Kaiserwald and Stutthof concentration camps
- Liberated by the Russians in 1945
- Mother was murdered by Nazis
- Joined her only brother in the U.S. in 1945
- Legacy includes two daughters and four grandchildren

Video Project Funding provided by:
Leslie Wolf, Caryn Wolf Wechsler, Nancy Wolf, and Sherri Wolf
in memory of their great aunt, Hadasah Zehman, a Holocaust survivor from Racionz, Poland.

With additional support from:
The Saltzman Youth Panel of the Cleveland Jewish Community Federation.

© Congregation Shaarey Tikvah, Beachwood, Ohio
A Custom Video Production

FACE TO FACE
A Holocaust Education Program at Congregation Shaarey Tikvah

Cover artwork by Jacob Hennenberg

Holocaust Survivor Hannah Lenschitzki Rath

Holocaust Survivor Hannah Lenschitzki Rath

Filmed on April 14, 2005

PART OF THE
HADASAH ZEHMAN VIDEO COLLECTION
OF FACE TO FACE PRESENTATIONS