

So make a pledge. And try to do something to avoid. There are so many atrocities going on still. Make a pledge to do something and to avoid something like this to happen again. That thing, never again-- it's not just any longer for Jews. We all have to say this because there are possibilities.

I forgot to mention, I didn't see many young people here. I guess it's almost time to go back to school. But I often like to speak to young people because they're actually the future of this country and of the world. So I just-- if the few young people that here-- do your best. Don't be prejudiced. Don't judge people by the color of their skin or their ethnic background. And if you see an injustice, then speak up. And don't join groups that promote hate and discrimination. OK, thank you.
